

Someone I don't know has sent me an email.

The email subject reads:
READ ME!!

What should I do?

I've met a really cool friend online called Alex, he likes surfing too.

He wants me to send a picture of myself to him.

What should I do?

Today, I was doing some research on where the best surfing spots are.

One website said "If you want to surf, you have to take a surfing test first, otherwise you're breaking the law".

Should I trust it?

I found a really cool website today but before I can use it, I have to sign up.

They need to know my name, address, telephone number and the name of my school.

What should I do?

I've found a really cool competition online.

They say if I enter now I might win a surfboard!

They just need my name and email address.

What should I do?

Today, whilst surfing the net, I found a great website. You can play all the games you want for just £4.99 a month.

They said "type in a grown up's bank card number". My mum has a bank card!

Should I type it in?

I met a cool friend online called Alex, he loves surfing too.

He wants to meet up soon so we can go surfing together.

What should I do?

I saw something horrible today whilst surfing the net.

It's made me feel really sad inside.

Lots of my friends are playing on this new website called 'extreme surfing'.

They've asked me to join it too.

What should I do?

I need to create a username for my 'Super Surfer' profile.

It says a username can be a made up name or a nickname, but I want to use my real name.

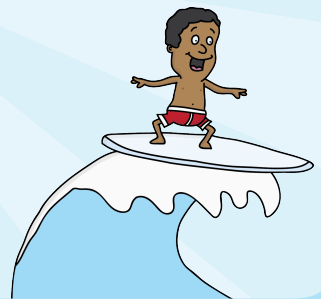

What should I do?
